Lake County Executive Airport

Lake County Executive Airport

The Lake County Executive Airport (KLNN) is a corporate airport located approximately 3 miles north of downtown Willoughby and 16 miles east of downtown Cleveland. The airport has two runways: runway 5-23 which is 5,013 feet long by 100 feet wide, and runway 10-28 which is 4,835 feet long by 100 feet wide. Facilities include AWOS III weather, a full-service Fixed Base Operator (FBO) providing fuel, major airframe/powerplant repairs, aircraft tiedown and hangar storage. Both 100LL and Jet A fuel are available. Based aircraft number 86 and include single- and multi-engine, turbo prop and jet aircraft with approximately 35-40 thousand aircraft operations annually. Additionally, there are 6 multi-tenant hangars to house private and corporate aircraft. On October 8, 2014, Lost Nation Airport sponsorship was transferred to the LCOPEDA and the County of Lake, Ohio. In March of 2020, the airport name was officially changed to LAKE COUNTY EXECUTIVE AIRPORT.

The Ohio Department of Transportation found that the Lake County Executive Airport known at the time of the study as Lost Nation Airport has an economic impact of \$9.4 million to Lake County.

The AWOS III weather can be accessed by dialing a unicom radio into 119.225 or by calling 440-942-0809.
